NEW GARDEN >> Matthew Wileyto, Mateo Reihman, Kyle Walchuk, Andrew Overman, Logan Walchuk, Isaac Hannah, Cullan Darhower, Jordan Walchuk, Adam Overman, Kate Elliott, Danielle Birkett, and JD Mickel took home first place medals at the KMC Trampoline Invitational on Sunday. The KMC trampoline team hosted more than 150 competitors from 13 teams and five states. The complete results are below:

In his first meet as a level 9 on trampoline Reihman rocked the house with first place on trampoline in the boys 11-and-12 year old group. Wileyto won first place on both trampoline and double mini trampoline for boys 15-and-older in level 9.

Reihman won double mini at level 8; Logan Walchuk placed fifth. Walchuk won first place on level 8 trampoline in his age group. Kyle Walchuk placed second in his age group for level 8 trampoline. Andrew Overman won first place on double mini for boys 13-and-14 years old.

In level 7 trampoline, Andrew Overman, Kate, Elliott, Adam Overman, and Jordan Walchuk won first place for their age groups. Isaac Hannah was second place on trampoline and won double mini trampoline for 13-and-14 year old boys. Adam Overman, Kate Elliott, and Jordan Walchuk also won first place on double mini trampoline for boys ages 11-and-12 and girls ages 13-and-14 and 7-and-8, respectively. Also in level 7 competition, Chayse D'Andrade won fourth on both trampoline and double mini in the 11-an-12 year old girls group.

In level 6 competition, Sarah Acland placed second on trampoline and sixth on double mini for 11-and-12 year old girls. Madison Townsend and Danielle Birkett competed in the girls 13-and-14 year old group. Birkett won double mini and Townsend was fifth. On trampoline Townsend tied for first and Birkett was fourth. Cullan Darhower was second on trampoline and third on double mini for 11-and-12 year old boys.

The level 4 and 5 competitors are new to the team and did very well in their age groups. In the 11-and-12 year old level 5 boys group, JD Mickel was first on double mini and on trampoline. For girls in the same category, Amber Birkett tied for fifth on trampoline and won third on double mini. Joining her on double mini, Hannah Watson placed second. Watson competed at level 4 on trampoline along with Holland Sellers. Sellers took second and Watson took third. On double mini, at level 4, Sellers took home second.

In their first meet competing in synchronized trampoline, all of the pairs performed well winning first in their groups and causing the crowd to roar with delight. The Walchuk boys competed together, Jordan Walchuk bounced with Adam Overman and Reihman performed with Michael Pfeffer from FlipOver gym in WV.

KMC Gymnastics is located at 912 W. Cypress St. in Kennett Square. The gym is run and owned by Karen Myers. The trampolinists train with Paul Wileyto, Sarah Arrigo, Joseph Kozlowski, Briana Kozlowski, and Justine Franchina. The team will travel to Maryland on March 8.
