

KMC Trampoline Team Jumps Over the Competition

Chester County Press March 9, 2015

The KMC Trampoline Team competed in the Tumble Jam competition in Gaithersburg, MD where there were more than 250 competitors, from 13 teams, and five states on March 8. The complete results are below:

Mateo Reihman competed a solid first place routine on trampoline for boys age 11, where he performed his double back for the first time in competition as a level 9.

Reihman won double mini at level 8; Logan Walchuk placed third. Walchuk won first place on level 8 trampoline for boys age 12.

In level 7 trampoline, Kate Elliott, Chayse D'Andrade, Isaac Hannah, and Jordan Walchuk won first place for their age groups. Walchuk posted one of the highest scores of the day on trampoline, across all age groups. Hannah and Walchuk also won double mini trampoline for 13-and-14 year old boys and girls, 8-and-under, respectively. Kate Elliott placed fourth on double mini trampoline for girls ages 13.

In level 6 competition, Sarah Acland won trampoline with her highest score of the season and she placed second on double mini, for 12 year old girls. Danielle Birkett won trampoline for 13 year old girls and she placed second on double mini. Maddison Townsend was fourth on trampoline and fifth on double mini, for 14 year old girls. Cullan Darhower was third on trampoline and second on double mini, for 12 year old boys.

The level 4 and 5 competitors are new to the team and did very well in their age groups. In the 11 year old level 5 boys group, JD Mickel was first on trampoline and second on double mini. For girls in the same category, Amber Birkett won third on double mini. Hannah Watson competed at level 4 on trampoline along with Holland Sellers, both won first place for girls 11 and 12, respectively. On double mini, at level 4, Sellers took home second.

Three teams competed in synchronized trampoline, all of the pairs performed well. D'Andrade and Hannah inched out Elliott and Walchuk for first place in the 13 year old category. Birkett and Townsend won the 14 year old category.
