

KMC Trampoline Team Out Bounces Competition

Chester County Press, April 14, 2015

Once again, the KMC Trampoline Team dominated the trampoline competition this past weekend as they put the final touches on their routines in preparation for the State Competition this coming Saturday. The team competed at the Unique Cherry Blossom invitation in Waldorf MD.

The complete results are below:

Matthew Wileyto competed at level 9 on both trampoline and double mini, where he won first place on both events with solid routines, in the 15-and-over age group. Mateo Reihman attained his highest scores this season on trampoline where he won first, for 11-and-12 year old boys at level 9.

In level 8 competition, Reihman and Logan Walchuk threw the one-two punch on double mini taking first and second place. Walchuk was third on trampoline after a rough optional routine. Kyle Walchuk finished first in the 9-and-10 year old age group on trampoline.

Once again, it was a first place sweep by KMC level 7 competitors, Kate Elliott, Isaac Hannah, Chayse D'Andrade, Adam Overman, and Jordan Walchuk on both trampoline and double mini. The level 7 KMC competitors soared above the competition earning some of the highest scores given during the competition on trampoline. On double mini, D'Andrade and Elliot won first for girls 11-and-12 and 13-and-14, respectively. Overman won first in his age group of 11-and-12 year old boys. Walchuk was first for girls 8-and-under.

In level 6 competition, Danielle Birkett took home first and Madison Townsend came in third on trampoline doing great routines with some very tough competition for 13-and-14 year old girls. On double mini, Birkett took second and Townsend took third. Sarah Acland placed third on both trampoline and double mini for 11-and-12 year old girls posting some of her highest scores of the season. Cullan Darhower was third on double mini and fourth on trampoline for 11-and-12 year old boys.

JD Mickel competed at level 5 and won first on both trampoline and double mini for boys 11-and-12 years old. For girls in the same age category and level, Hannah Watson and Amber Birkett placed fourth and fifth respectively on double mini. On trampoline, Birkett won second with a strong routine.

Watson placed first on level 4 trampoline with a beautiful routine, Holland Sellers placed fifth. On double mini at level 4, Sellers took home first place.

All four KMC synchronized trampoline pairs performed well. The pair of Birkett/Townsend put up their highest score of the season of 33.6 with some of the best synchronization scores possible.

In tumbling, the athletes persevered again; Reihman and Walchuk placed first in their respective age groups at level 5. Birkett and Elliott placed second in level 5 and 6 respectively, in their age group.

KMC Gymnastics is located at 912 W Cypress St in Kennett Square PA. The gym is run and owned by Karen Myers. The trampolinists train with Paul Wileyto, Sarah Arrigo, Joseph Kozlowski, Briana Kozlowski, and Justine Franchina.

Good luck to the team at the State Meet in Burtonsville, MD!
